Office:

- The Stewards held a review with Jockeys Melanie Pinto and Ismael Mosqueira concerning the inquiry and Jockeys claim of foul in race seven yesterday (June 27, 2022). The Stewards explained their position and why they felt that a placing wasn't warranted.
- The Stewards held a review with Apprentice Jockey Michael David concerning his urging in race eight yesterday (June 27, 2022). Mr. David did use his crop in an excessive manner and is subject to a $200.00 monetary penalty. AGCO Ruling #1777263
- Jockey Leo Salles was excused from his mounts today.
- Jockey Jeffrey Alderson was excused from his mounts today.
- Association Property Manager Andrew Cady informed the Stewards that 480tns of material were added to the track.

Race 1:

- All clear

Race 2:

- All clear

Race 3:

- The Stewards reviewed racing in the stretch, #9 Pino In A Purse (Juan Crawford), (finished second) makes it tight as she goes by #6 Capoeira (Steven Bahen), (finished fifth). #6 was backing out as the #9 was going by, there were no violations.
- #8 Louemma (Melanie Pinto), (finished ninth) was eased as they turned for home.

Race 4:

- The Stewards reviewed racing going into the far turn. #5 Beaufort (Melanie Pinto), (finished seventh) appears to run up the heels of #8 Gus's Gamble (Juan Crawford), (finished sixth). No placings were required.

Race 5:

- Inquiry, Jockeys claim of foul #7 High Society Girl (Melanie Pinto), (finished seventh and was placed sixth) on #8 Swirling Candy (Keveh Nicholls), (finished second and was placed seventh). #8 turns to the left on the first jump leaving the gate and comes across the path of the #7. #8 finished second and was placed seventh for causing interference to #7 while leaving the gate. There is no review required and no penalty to Jockey Keveh Nicholls as it is quite clear that he does attempt to stay off the horse inside of him on the first jump.
