REVISED

Backstretch:

Manager of racing Tom Miller attended the stand today and is representing the AGCO.

Film Reviews:

None

Races:

Race 1, #7 Anonymously and #1 Princess Azteca were off slow, rest ok

Race 2, Turf, #5 Mighty d'Artagnan was off a step slow. Rest good. It was observed that the back tower camera angle was not available. Spoke with On-Track, our provider, they stated that the problem seems to exist with Woodbine broadcast feed. They are looking into the matter.

Race 3, Stewards' Inquiry, #4 Faraway Kitten, G. Boulanger, 1st and #3 Fafa Foey, L. Contreras,

3rd, deep stretch. Upon review, front and upper pan angles, #4 and #3 do make contact, considered to be incidental. Boulanger stated they were getting tired, baby stuff. L. Contreras felt he went out and the #4 came in. No change to the order.

#1 Dangerous Star appeared to take a bad step and was pulled up down the backstretch and did not finish.

Race 4, Turf, No back tower camera angle available. #5 Musketier's Shadow was off a step slow, #6 Opeongo was fractious early and lugged out into far turn.

Race 5, #5 Putsy's Pal and #8 Robson were both off slow, rest good.

Race 6, Turf, All camera angles available. #2 Westlodge Intrigue was detained in the paddock being attended to the paddock blacksmith.

#1 Sassy Ombre popped up at start. #3 Rince Tapaigh with Luis Contreras laid out after the start and the inside rein broke. Mr. Contreras was diligent getting his horse out of harms' way with the rest of the field. #3 Did not finish.

Apprentice Jockey Kazushi Kimura issued a caution for urging his mount, #1 Sassy Ombre, when not in contention and reaching its optimum position.

Race 7, clear

Race 8, #2 Abogada was away from the gate poorly, rest good

Race 9, clear

Race 10, Breeders' Stakes, Turf, #5 Aheadbyacentury had to take check into the first turn as it got tight, rest good
