Backstretch:

Al Parady in Race 7 horse Diamond Vision. Mr. Parody obtained a trainers license last week at Woodbine however he had failed to get clearance from HBPA as he hadn't been listed as a trainer for about 6 years. He also entered the horse when it was under the care and control of another trainer. Diamond Vision scratched from Race 7.

Called Anthony Pottinger about a horse Mohawk Style that he entered that required a 30 day work for Tuesday. He has failed to get the work in time to be published. We have asked him to attend out office on Tuesday regarding the matter.

Rulings issued on Thursday for Melanie Pinto TB 10908 and Pierre Mailhot TB 10909. Each received a monetary penalty of $200 for unsportsmanlike conduct

R4-Reviewed racing at the top of the stretch. #6 Vanek swings out steps toward a tiring #5 Johnson. No impact on #5.

R6-Stewards Inquiry and JCOF #2 Carignan (3rd) on #5 Johnson (1st) at the 1/16 pole. Carignan said she was making a run and he came down to her pinching her along the rail. Johnson said he knew she was there but hadn't felt that he came down that much. A review of the front tower shows the #5 coming in under right handed urging and making contact with the #2 who then grabs. #5 Lady with Class finished 1st and placed third. Notice of Review sent down for the riders involved.
