Backstretch:

Basil Leon was in looking to get licenses today. Asked to take forms and come back Wednesday as we had no licensing agent.

Agent Jordan Miller was contacted about his outstanding fines.

horse Identifier Mike Lynn was regarding the horse Stereo Vieweing . We felt he needs to excercise more diligence when examing tattoos.The horse was properly identified through its micro chip.

It was reported to us an altercation between one of the pony persons and an out .rider. We will follow up

Film Reviews:

Races:

R1-Clear

R2-Clear

R3-Reviewed run around the far turn. Spoke to the rider of #7 S. Ryan who said her horse was running out and stopped badly.

R4-Clear

R5-Stewards Inquiry and two claims of foul. #2 Mosqueira (9th) on #4 Kimura (2nd) at about the 3/8 pole. However after speaking to the riders and reviewing the film it appears the #4 is out off the rail and #2 is making a move up the inside where there isn't sufficient room. disallowed

Inquiry film; <https://youtu.be/tbcBufcYsMY>

Second Jockey Claim of foul # 9 Boulanger (3rd) on #7 Hernandez (1st). Boulanger felt he had to take a hold or go into the fence. Hernandez said he was going by quickly and may have come in a little bit. After reviewing the films the Stewards felt there did appear to still be room for #9 when he checks with no effect on the outcome of the race. Disallowed

Inquiry film. <https://youtu.be/-zHLXL-R64o>

R6-Reviewed the run from the Gate by the #2 Kimura which was running quite rank until midway in the turn. No effect on the outcome.
