Office:

09:50 – Jockey Neil Wilson attended and was upset that Jockey Skye Chernetz was placed on Justin Nixon's horse "Patton's Girl" in today's fourth race. Skye was not at the draw on Wednesday and was named on two horses. The Steward on duty made the call to place her on the horse of trainer Jordan Lay. After the draw was over, Trainer Justin Nixon called to complain Skye should be on his horse as he had first call and she has been galloping the horse. We also received a call from Skye to say Justin did have the call and Mr. Lay just named her on, didn't know he was going in the race. We made the change to put Skye on the horse and Mr. Wilson was upset that we removed his rider after being listed in the program. Spoke to Justin Nixon and he was pleased with the outcome.

10:30 – Jockey Oral Dean Stimpson attended re: disrespectful by word towards the official Outriders, monetary penalty of $200.00

Film Reviews:

Races:

Race 1 – Clear

Race 2 – #6 “Dance Along Dede” ridden by Alan Garcia was away slow

Race 3 – Stewards Inquiry re: Run into the far turn involving #3 “Count Forest” with Jesse Campbell aboard who checks his horse. Jesse said his horse doesn’t like to be in tight quarters and when Kazushi came up to my inside my horse didn’t want to be in there. Had an issue in a race last year. Jesse did feel however, that Kazushi on #1 “Salieri” got up inside him late. Kazushi said he let his horse go up along the rail but never came off it or bothered anyone. Rafael Hernandez aboard #2 “Executive Sight” was behind and to the outside and thought from his vantage point, Kazushi should not have run up the inside. Patrick Husbands on #5 “Sailing Home” and on the outside of Campbell said he held his ground and stayed off Jesse. After review the video didn’t support the need for a placing. No Change.

Race 4 – Clear

Race 5 – Clear

Race 6 – The William D. Graham Memorial” - Clear

Race 7 – Stewards Inquiry and rider Claim of Foul by Michelle Rainford aboard #6 “Get My Gist” against #3 “Epilogue” ridden by Justin Stein for interference through the stretch. Michelle said she was going straight and had a real chance to win when Justin came out and bumped her hard, moved her out, believe it cost me the win. Justin said Michelle’s horse was lugging in on him around the turn and we did come together a bit during the stretch run, but I was going by her. After review, we disqualified #3 “Epilogue” from first and placed it second behind #6 “Get My Gist”.

Race 8 – The Plate Trial Stakes – Review of an incident down the backstretch in the vicinity of the ½ mile pole involving #2 “Rising Star” ridden by Justin Stein and #9 “Krachenwagen” ridden by Jeffrey Alderson. Justin said he was in there but his horse didn’t “quicken” the way I wanted him to. He did squeeze me a bit but wasn’t too worried. Jeffrey said he didn’t realize Justin was inside him until he yelled, pulled out off him. Video review scheduled for tomorrow.
