Backstretch:

Pegasus System not available until further notice according to Woodbine Management, Using the On Track system tonight

Group from the AGCO attended the stand and backstretch

Film Reviews:

none

Races:

R1-Clear/ no front tower shot apparently no available operator We asked that another person be assigned to the front tower

R2-Reviewed racing around the turn. #1 Fukumoto was having trouble with his mount and made a lateral move coming off the turn that forced #3 Da Silva to check. #3 finished ahead of the #1 so no placings necessary. Fukumoto cautioned

R3-Reviewed racing around the turn #12 Campbell (14th) grabbed up. He indicated he was in a bad spot and had to take out, pressure was coming more from the inside, inconclusive on the film.

R4-Clear

R5-Clear

R6-Stewards inquiry after the break. #5 Fukumoto (4th) appeared to stumble as the #6 Hernandez crosses over. Spoke to both riders. Fukumoto said there was slight contact. Hernandez did not think there was contact. Reviewed available shots. It could not be determined if there was contact or if the #5 stumbled as it was taking back. No change in the order of finish Inquiry tape <https://youtu.be/CM3X6wqe91g>

R7-reviewed stretch run the #4 (1st) and #1 (2nd) brush together, no impact on the outcome. Spoke to Patrick Husbands #1 after the race who said he thought his horse just changed leads hadn't realized that they may have touched
