Report on day's Events: (Backstretch - accidents, fines, suspensions, objections, disqualifications, refunds, pertinent incidents, general details etc., Film Reviews, Races, Claims)

Office:

10:20 – Jockey Agent Antonio Furtado attended re: jumping on a horse at the draw without first obtaining a call. Tony explained that he has an agreement with three trainers that if they require a jockey at the draw that I am allowed to name my rider on, one being Gerald Seymour. No penalty.

10:50 – Exercise riders Curtis Ellis and Damian Kaye attended re: galloping the wrong way on the racetrack. Said he just started with Norm McKnight and that the horses have learned this habit. We advised we spoke with Norm who relayed he has warned his riders about this to which Curtis confirmed. Damien said they don't really gallop but horses do break into a lope every now and then. Monetary penalty of $100.00 each.

Film Reviews:

Yesterdays' eighth race involving, Luis Contreras, Justin Stein and Rafael Hernandez in late stretch. Luis said he wasn't sure who was responsible but he was in between the two horses and then his room was gone, had to check hard. Justin felt he kept straight and it was the inside horse that came out to him hard. Rafael said he went to pull his stick through to his left hand and in the process dropped his left rein, said the horse immediately went out with him, never hit him and grabbed as quick as he could but the damage was done, apologized to Luis after the race. No penalty.

Races:

Race 1 – Noticed Eurico once again strike his mount with the crop in the raised or cocked position. He was quite upset with himself, saying he realized after he did it. Said he is really trying and will not do it again.

Race 2 – Clear

Race 3 – The Ontario Fashion Stakes – Clear

Race 4 – Clear

Race 5 – Clear

Race 6 – Clear

Race 7 - #8 “L’Amour Toujours” ridden by Eurico Da Silva was scratched by the official veterinarian during the post parade. Warning to Jerome Lermyte aboard #4 “Bold Strike” about getting his hand too high while adapting to the new style.

Race 8 – The Woodbine Turf Endurance – Clear

Race 9 - #3 “Shelbourne” ridden by Daisuke turned over in the post parade and ran off, Scratched by the Stewards. Rob Love caught the horse then was pulled off his pony by the horse. Eventually re-caught with no injury to Rob. Stewards Inquiry into the start regarding #2 “Eboracum” with Justin Stein reared straight up as the doors open, the starter never lets go but had no choice given the circumstances, the horse went over and end up under the stall. Stewards declared the horse had an unfair start and a refund of Mutuels was ordered.
