Office:

Tony Esposito, informed us that his rider R. Hernandez has accepted a day suspension of Wednesday November 6, 2019.

Suzanne Drake provided a statement of fact from an incident at her barn regarding some licensees that are allegedly harassing her.

Agent Neal Wilson attended to inform that jockey Jesse Campbell will be riding here on the weekend, he stated that he had taken calls for him a couple of weeks ago and that he is not representing him in a context as agent currently. Some people might question that he has three journeyman riders.

Received notification of a cert of positive analysis for the class 3 Hydroxyethyl Promazine Sulfoxide, a metabolite of Acepromazine,
Test tag urine-#73-19284-301 from the 1st race on October 11, 2019. Finished 1st
Owner: True North Stable
Trainer: Lorne Richards
Lorne attended and was apprised of the situation. He was given information and we will meet again with Mr. Richards on Friday to discuss penalty.

Jockeys Stein and Bahen excused from their respective mounts tonight

Film Reviews:

Review with Jockey Diasuke Fukumoto from the tenth race on Sunday October 27. Present were Irwin Driedger, Gary Boulanger and Ismael Mosquiera. Diasuke said he thought Gary was going to move out so he went for the hole, caught his heels. We expressed to Diasuke how dangerous a move it was that he made, to both himself and to others. After discussion it was decided a three day suspension was in order, days to be determined.

Races:

Race 1 – Rider Claim of Foul (COF) by Keveh Nicholls aboard #4 “Chill Out” against #3 “Ami’s Link” ridden by Kazushi Kimura for interference in the vicinity of the quarter pole. Keveh said Kazushi was squeezing me, would get off me, I would have beaten him. Kazushi said it was tight, there were four of us together, I have nowhere to go myself. After review the COF was disallowed.
