Backstretch:

Film Reviews:

Due to a glitch in our race review of yesterdays second race, we were unable to view the replay until this morning. We observed Jockey Corey Jordan use his crop excessively during the stretch run on his mount "Hello Annie". During our review with Corey, he

Races:

Race 1 - #6 "Calais Cove" trained by John Mattine, was late to the paddock, arriving at thirteen minutes to post. Monetary penalty $100.00

Race 2 – Spoke with Juan Crawford aboard #7 "Souper Pecan" and use of his crop, borderline excessive.

Race 3 – Clear

Race 4 – Jockey Claim of Foul (COF) by Leo Salles aboard #1 "Red Astaire" against #3 "Embrace My Uncle" ridden by Emma Wilson for interference in the vicinity of the ½ mile pole.

Leo said the first incident at the half, Emma caused an issue in front of him and he had to steady. Emma said Leo was nowhere around her down the backstretch and that Kazushi was in a tight spot, said there was shuffling from the inside which resulted in some bumping. Kazushi said he caught heels but felt it was a combination of things which led to him clipping the heels of Hernandez. Hernandez said he was just holding his ground, didn't feel like he came in. COF was disallowed.

Leo also claimed foul against Emma and Luis Contreras aboard #5 "King of the Ring" for interference during the stretch run. Leo said Luis was pushing him down and Emma came out in front of him. Luis said Leo was trying to push his way out and he was just holding his ground. Emma said she did come out briefly when her horse shied from #6 "G Prince for Silver" ridden by Daryll Holland but was always clear of Salles, he was never close to my heels. After review, the COF was disallowed.

Race 5 – Clear

Race 6 – Two incidents, first away from the gate, Stewards Inquiry. Justin Stein aboard #5 "I've Paid My Dues" clips the heels of #6 "Giant Attraction" ridden by David Moran, Hernandez on the inside said two or three of them to the inside were bumping and Stein got knocked out over Moran's horses heels. David said he felt he held his ground and Stein was pushed out across his heels. We were able to catch up with Justin who said the same, they were all very tight and it was the perfect storm, couldn't place the blame on anyone. No Change. Stein off his remaining mount Assessed by EMS, no concussion detected.
