Film Reviews:

Yesterdays third race involving Austin Adams and Da-Sean Gaskin for interference during the stretch run. Present was Daren Gomez. Austin said we were battling down the lane and Da- Seans horse made an abrupt move into me, felt it cost me third money. Da-Sean said his horse all of a sudden moved to the right on me, grabbed right away to make sure Austin was ok and didn't hit my horse again. No action taken

Races:

Race 1 – #5 “Zone Control” ridden by Jason Hoyte was away awkwardly. Jason said his horse was nervous loading and once in, we were not quite set and the doors opened.

Race 2 - #2 “Always a Way” ridden by Keveh Nicholls was fractious in the gate and scratched by the veterinarian. #1 “Gatling Gun” ridden by Rafael Hernandez was away slow but prevailed for the win. Refund of mutuels for #2, $36,947.

Race 3 - #5 "D's Kandy" ridden by Juan Crawford was away slow.

Race 4 - #2 "Street Serenade" was declared a Stewards Scratch under advisement of the Official Starter. Refund of mutuels #2, $17,290.

Race 5 – Jockey Claim of Foul (COF) by Austin Adams aboard #3 "Bearing Down" against #11 "Ry Pie" ridden by Juan Crawford for interference approaching the wire. Austin said Juan came over in front of my horse and we lost momentum. Juan said his horse did move in with him but never bothered anyone. After review, the COF was disallowed. <https://youtu.be/9yrhLJ9O-Ok>
