Purpose of this document

The purpose of this document is to list the minimum obligations of all Operators and Gaming-Related Suppliers (GRS) operating in Ontario to notify the Alcohol & Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO).

These notification requirements may not be comprehensive and do not supersede the Gaming Control Act, applicable Regulations, the Registrar’s Standards for Gaming, the Registrar’s Standards for Gaming: Lottery Sector, Terms of Registration, or any other AGCO requirements.

Additionally, in accordance with the Registrar’s Standards for Gaming and the Registrar’s Standards for Gaming: Lottery Sector, Standard 1.45, Operators and Gaming-Related Suppliers shall comply with Technical Standards issued by the Registrar. This includes any notifications, approvals and / or regulatory submissions defined by the Technical Standards.

The minimum notification obligations listed herein are not intended to negate ongoing, open and transparent communication between the Operators, GRS, and the AGCO. This document represents a shift consistent with the Standards-Based Approach and away from traditional prescriptive notification scenarios. Operators must use sound judgment and discretion to determine circumstances requiring notification.

For ease of reference, the minimum notification obligations outlined within this document are organized into two distinct categories.

Incident Notifications: notifications generated as a result of an event occurring at/or involving the gaming site.

Regulatory Submissions: submissions generated as a result of defined submission requirements.

In the case of any technical issues that limit your ability to submit notifications through iAGCO, all notification submissions should be submitted by email to notifications@agco.ca.

S12A	Sport and Event Betting Offerings Made Available – Report	Casino Lottery	Registrar’s Standards for Gaming: Standard 4.19 Registrar’s Standards for Gaming: Lottery Sector 4.19.1	For sport and event betting, Operators must provide a report containing all sports and non-sporting events on which bets were offered, the type of bet offered, the handle amount, along with the sporting events’ corresponding governing bodies. This indicator includes both pre-game and in-game bet offerings. The structure of the data is expected to be as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. sport_or_event: The name of the sport or event type the event falls under. For traditional sports, this is expected to be the name of the sport (e.g. basketball, DOTA2, etc). For novelty bets, this is a brief description of the event (e.g. hot dog eating contest).2. type_of_bet: Outright, in-play or novelty. Outright means the winner of the event (e.g. winner of a basketball game), in-play means a bet on an in-game event (e.g. next pitch), and novelty means a bet offering for which there does not exist a governing body (e.g. “hot dog eating contest”).3. handle_amount: The amount of money bet on the given line item (sport or event, governing body, type of bet). Handle amount refers the amount of money flowing through different offerings and sports. This must be listed in Canadian dollar currency. For example, handle amount for NHL hockey outright is 4,000,000.12.4. governing_body: The governing body of a corresponding sport or event on which bets were offered, where applicable. Governing body refers to the lowest level of governing body of a sport under which the event is being conducted where multiple levels exist. For example: A regional soccer authority rather than FIFA. Note, by definition there is no governing body for novelty bets. This field should be labelled NA for those entries. Guidance: The intent of this report is not to list every game on which a bet is offered (e.g. game 3 of the playoffs of league X). Rather it is to list the bet offerings by sport, governing body, and type of bet (outright, in-play, or novelty). For novelty bets, this includes a description of the event itself by necessity, though this is not required for traditional sports	Monthly	AGCO Secure FTP
