Film Reviews:

Review of Sunday's fifth race involving Rafael Hernandez and Emma Wilson during the stretch run. Justin Stein was present along with Irwin Driedger. Emma said her horse was full of run and her momentum was stopped when Rafael came over and in front of her, cost her second money if not the win. Rafael said his horse was on its left lead all through the stretch and never hit him, switched to his left hand but damage was done. Stein said it looks as though Rafael did all he could and Irwin agreed.

Races:

Race 1 – Clear

Race 2 – Clear

Race 3 – Rider Claim of Foul (COF) by Sunny Singh aboard #4 "Grander Plan" against #6 "Blind Trust" ridden by Sahin Civaci for interference shortly away from the gate. Sunny said the horse came over on him and had to check. Sahin said his horse did move in and was clear of Sunny, no change, COF was disallowed.

Race 4 – Clear

Race 5 – Clear

Race 6 – Clear

Race 7 – Stewards Inquiry and a rider Claim of Foul (COF) by David Moran aboard #5 “Crumlin Queen” against Emma-Jayne Wilson aboard #2 “Close Image” for interference in late stretch. A further COF was lodged by Tony Gattellaro, the Trainer of #4 “Desert Poem” ridden by Luis Contreras against #2 for interference during the same incident. David said the horse came out and stopped him causing him to check, was on her heels and she forced me out into the horse to my outside. Emma said she did move out but was running on by, thought she was clear. Luis said his horse was bumped in the hind quarters causing him to lose action, my horse was moving fast and it may have cost me the win. After review, we disqualified #2 from first position and placed it fifth behind #5.
