Backstretch:

Nothing to report

Film Reviews:

Review held with Rafael Hernandez and Justin Stein regarding yesterday's 3rd race. Mr. Hernandez's horse finished 5th and was placed 6th for causing interference to Mr. Stein's horse in the stretch. No further penalty to Hernandez as his horse was racing green and he jumped sideways into Stein's horse when a horse passed on the outside. Hernandez did what he could to keep the horse straight.

Races:

Race 1 clear

Race 2 Skye Chernetz issued a $200 monetary penalty for an urging violation. When she brings her crop through from her right hand to her left, she raises the crop above her head and strikes the horse in one fluid motion. Ruling 1074365

Race 3 clear

Race 4 clear

Race 5 Jockey claim of foul 8 on 1 in the stretch. Upheld
Jockey of #8 There's No Joe (Wilson) said that #1 came in and forced her to take hold and lose her momentum and after she switched out she was gaining again. Jockey of #1 Priceless Will (Hernandez) said that he stayed straight, and it was caused by #3 coming out. We do not see #3 come out and it is clear that #1 does drift in and take the path away from #8. #1 finished 1st and was placed 3rd.

Race 6 clear

Race 7 Stewards inquiry and JKOF 3 on 4. The rider of #3 Ready To Repeat (Contreras) said that #4 Gretzky The Great came down and took his path away causing him to take hold. Rider of #4 (Kimura) said that it was tight but there was still room. We agree that there was still room and the rider of #3 does overreact. No placing
